Engai Creative Thought

The following are lists of questions that can assist you in learning about You (@ any stage or place in your life). This LIFE Questionnaire project is a fun activity to help you get into a frame of mind that can be conducive in helping You with decision making, defining and identifying Your thought content & intention. It's a Great tool to help us "Get to Know Your House" 😊 You may use it as often as you like, in any situation/circumstance as you like. In a particular situation, you may ask yourself, for example..."what do I need to have, what would I like have, how may I go about getting the resolution I want".

Read each group of questions quickly, choosing the first one you gravitate to the most. Enjoy the moment and have fun, as you complete this questionnaire. Once you're done, add your score; if sum is a double digit, simply add the two together to get one digit (i.e. total score is 57 / 5 + 7 = 12 then 1 + 2 = 3).

The final single digit is your score; in this example the final score is 3..

See the bottom of the questionnaire to read your results. Extra InSight, take note of each choice.
